I know what you are thinking, but it is worth it. .This season, we are counting down the Top 10 Offensive Players in CFB to help identify those players that deserve to be thought of as the best in the business. 10. Austin Allen, QB, Arkansas Green Bay couldn't get Dallas Wentz. Maybe Wisconsin can convince Arkansas to trade up to be the second quarterback they draft this year. No one has a higher ceiling than the Georgia Tech transfer, and it's not a knock on the Oklahoma State product. It's a comment on the guy on the other sideline, whose work ethic and commitment to the game of football has been questioned in the eyes of some. For that reason, Allen should be on the short list of quarterbacks the Packers should target with their first round pick. At 5-foot-10 and 214 pounds, Allen isn't the most imposing guy on the football field, but he is good. He's good at buying time, he's good at moving the chains and he has a lot of touch with the football. He has the mobility to make a lot of plays outside the pocket with his legs. If all he can do is stay upright and make the right read and throw on time, Allen can be pretty effective.

Don't sleep on Allen. He is a quarterback who can make the play. 9. James Washington, WR, Oklahoma State Jared Goff is the most promising young quarterback in the NFL, and Washington is the best wide receiver in the draft. What we saw during Washington's final two games at Oklahoma State was a product of the star athlete, who was an All-Big 12 freshman in 2017. If you are a quarterback, Washington is going to be pretty hard to
